Activities:

Kuwait Petroleum Corporation (KPC) is a government-owned umbrella organization founded in January 1980 to manage the rapidly diversifying oil industry of the State of Kuwait. It is unique among Middle Eastern oil companies for its integrated portfolio of eight subsidiaries specializing in the following activities:

- Exploration & producing oil and gas inside & outside Kuwait.
- Refining & Gas Liquefaction.
- Marketing of petroleum products in Kuwait and KPC-owned gas stations in Europe and Asia.
- Producing and marketing of fertilizers and petrochemicals.
- Exporting & transporting Kuwaiti crude oil, petroleum products & liquefied gases.
- Providing aviation fuelling services.
- Providing construction and security services for KPC and its subsidiaries, as well as residential and medical services for employees.
- Contracting with international oil companies to develop Kuwait's northern oil fields, namely: Rawdatain, Sabriya, Ritqa and Al-Abdali.
